

I had XM radio installed so that I could listen to what I want to hear. The NAB should be ashamed, the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States allows for XM and Sirius to broadcast what they wish. If some group opposed something the NAB wanted to broadcast, they would be screaming about their first amendment rights!!!! Evidently, satellite radio has gotten "big enough" to be a thorn in their side.